ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO DISMISS DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT, GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO REPLY TO MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT AND GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST TO EXTEND DISCOVERY DEADLINE (DKT. NO. 29)

The plaintiff, representing herself, filed this case against defendant State of Wisconsin, the District One Court of Appeals and Kitty Brennan. Dkt. No. 1. In her amended complaint, the plaintiff alleged that she is a former employee of retired Wisconsin Court of Appeals Judge Kitty Brennan and that Judge Brennan fired her because of her race, her age, her disability and in retaliation. Dkt. No. 3 at 2-3. Magistrate Judge David E. Jones screened the complaint, dismissed the Court of Appeals and Judge Brennan as defendants, and allowed the plaintiff to proceed against the State of Wisconsin. Dkt. No. 5. Currently before the court is the plaintiff's unopposed motion for an extension of time to reply to the defendant's motion for summary judgment and to dismiss the motion for summary judgment. Dkt. No. 29.

I. Procedural and Factual History

The deadline for completing discovery was July 5, 2019. Dkt. No. 15. The court later approved a stipulation extending the discovery deadline to August 2, 2019. Dkt. No. 18. A week after discovery closed, the defendant filed a motion for summary judgment. Dkt. No. 19. Three weeks later, the plaintiff filed the instant two-page combined motion for extension of time to reply and request that “summary judgment be dismissed.” Dkt. No. 29.

The plaintiff explains that she will be “unable to complete reply in a timely fashion” because of outstanding discovery issues. Id. at ¶¶3–5. She says that she received “partial discovery” from the defendants on August 16. Id. at ¶2. She says that she has not been able to “schedule a time and place for deposition,” and that she is concerned that “the parties in this matter will be difficult to take deposition from.” Id. at ¶4. She asserts that there are “issues” as to production of “any emails from staff” related to her. Id. at ¶5. She says that she spoke by phone with opposing counsel, who told her that the defendant was waiting for the emails and that it could take up to two weeks to provide them. Id. The plaintiff also asks the court to deny summary judgment, citing an affidavit from Madrea Williams, dkt. no. 31, that the plaintiff asserts disputes part of Judge Kitty Brennan’s declaration. Dkt. No. 29 at ¶¶8–9.

The defendant does not object to the plaintiff’s request for an extension of time. Dkt. No. 33 at 1. It notes, however, that the plaintiff’s discovery demand was overly broad (asking for emails among Wisconsin court staff and the plaintiff), that it found several thousand emails that it will need to review to respond to the request and that it will provide the plaintiff with the responsive emails over the next several weeks, once it has gone through all the emails. Id. at 1-2.

The court will deny the plaintiff's request to dismiss the defendant's motion for summary judgment. Until the motion has been fully briefed, that request is premature. To the extent that the plaintiff is asking the court to extend the deadline for completing discovery, that request appears reasonable, given the defendants' explanation about the difficulties in complying with the plaintiff's discovery demands. The court does not know who the plaintiff wishes to depose, or whether she tried to depose anyone before she filed this motion. But the court also will extend the discovery deadline to allow her to try to arrange for whatever deposition she seeks to conduct.

The court DENIES as premature the plaintiff's request that the court dismiss the defendant's motion for summary judgment. Dkt. No. 29.

The court GRANTS the plaintiff's request to extend the deadline for completing discovery. Dkt. No. 29.

The court ORDERS that the deadline for completing discovery is EXTENDED to the end of the day on December 13, 2019.

The court GRANTS the plaintiff's motion for an extension of time to respond to the defendant's motion for summary judgment. Dkt. No. 29. The court ORDERS that by the end of the day on December 20, 2019, the defendant shall notify the court whether it needs to amend its motion for summary judgment based on the discovery. Once the defendant provides the court with that information, the court will set a deadline for the plaintiff to respond to the defendant's summary judgment motion.

Dated in Milwaukee, Wisconsin this 9th day of October, 2019.
